

HADLOW DOWN PARISH COUNCIL

CO-OPTION PROCEDURE

April 2018

1. In the event of a resignation or another reason for the creation of a vacancy on the Parish Council the Clerk will notify Wealden District Council Democratic Services and request the appropriate forms for displaying the notice of vacancy.
2. If this display does not initiate the 10 signatures of electors in the period of time required by legislation (at present 14 working days) the co-option procedure continues with step 3, otherwise the election process will be followed.
3. A co-option notice is displayed (see Appendix 1) and names of any interested persons for co-option are to be sought and passed to the Parish Clerk. .
4. All prospective candidates will be contacted by the Clerk who will arrange for details on the qualifications for being a Councillor to be sent to the applicant(s). She will request confirmation from them that they meet these qualifications.
5. Once confirmation has been received from the applicant(s) they will be asked to put their request for consideration in writing by a set date. This should include a summary about themselves including: reasons for wishing to be a Councillor; previous community/council work; any other skills they can bring to the Council; their interests and recent career history.
6. Candidates found to be offering inducements of any kind or of canvassing Council members will be disqualified from standing.
7. The Clerk will undertake checks to ensure that the applicant is qualified to be a Councillor including on insolvencydirect.bis.gov.uk
8. Candidates will be encouraged to attend at least one Council meeting prior to the one at which the co-option will be decided.
9. All Councillors will receive a copy of the candidates application. At the Council meeting when the co-option takes place, each nominee will be invited to speak for up to 3 minutes. Councillors will have the opportunity to ask them questions. .
10. Discussion about the applications will take place in council session without intervention from the candidates or public.
11. A vote will then be taken by either signed ballot or show of hands, all candidates will be considered.
12. The applicant with the highest number of votes cast will be co-opted and where there is still a vacancy(s) and the remaining candidates have received the same number of votes a further vote will be taken until the number of candidates equals the number of vacancies. Should there be a draw the chair can use his/her casting vote.
13. Candidates will be furnished with a full agenda of the meeting at which they are to be considered for appointment together with the Code of Conduct, Standing Orders and Financial Regulations. The successful candidate(s) will immediately sign their declaration of acceptance of office and can then act as Councillor(s). The Register of Interest will need to be filled in within 28 days and a copy passed on to the Monitoring Officer via the Clerk.
